

Final Days of Legislature Bring Secret Meetings to Eliminate Federal Deductibility

Your Action Is Still Needed!

As the final days of the 2009 Legislative Session are unfolding, secret meetings with arm-twisting and horse-trading, are being led by House Democrat leaders.

Iowa Lawmakers continue to consider a vote on the bill to repeal Federal Deductibility in closed door meetings. In the conversations on the future of Iowa, taxpayers have tried to be part of the process only to be thrown out or have the door closed in their face.

In these final days of the Legislative Session we must make our voice is heard loud and clear. NO Tax on a Tax! It is because of your constant support the bill has been delayed to this point, but is not yet over!

Please call and email your Senator and Representative again to tell them you oppose any attempt to eliminate Federal Deductibility.
